Handwritten text in Church Slavonic script, likely a liturgical or legal document. The text is densely packed and spans approximately 25 lines. It begins with a large initial letter 'Д' and contains various words and phrases characteristic of the Slavonic alphabet. The script is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper.

3. [Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a form of Church Slavonic or Old Church Slavonic. The text is dense and covers the right page of the manuscript. It begins with a large initial '3' and contains several lines of text, including what appears to be a liturgical or doctrinal passage. The script is dark and somewhat faded in places, with some ink bleed-through from the reverse side visible.]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a form or record, consisting of several lines of text.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a date or a reference number.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a list or a detailed record, covering the upper right portion of the page.

Handwritten text on a separate strip of paper, possibly a continuation of the record or a separate entry.

Handwritten text on a separate strip of paper, possibly a continuation of the record or a separate entry.

Faint handwritten text on a rectangular piece of aged paper, mostly illegible due to fading.

Handwritten signature or initials at the bottom of the first fragment.

Second fragment of handwritten text, appearing as a horizontal strip.

Handwritten signature or initials at the bottom of the second fragment.

Third fragment of handwritten text, appearing as a horizontal strip.

Main handwritten text on a page, written in a cursive script. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It includes several lines of text, with some words appearing to be names or titles, such as 'Михаил' and 'Иван'. The handwriting is somewhat slanted and compact.

Small handwritten mark or number on the left margin of the main page.

Handwritten text in Cyrillic script, likely a title or header, possibly containing the name of the document or its author.

Handwritten text in Cyrillic script, possibly a signature or a date, located at the bottom left of the page.

Main body of handwritten text in Cyrillic script, consisting of several lines of dense, cursive handwriting. The text appears to be a historical or administrative document, possibly a list or a record of events.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a list or a set of instructions. The text is dense and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style. It appears to be a list of items or a set of instructions, possibly related to a collection or a set of records.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a medieval manuscript. The text is written on a single page of parchment, which is heavily stained and discolored. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of Gothic or similar medieval hand. The text is arranged in approximately 25 lines, with some lines starting with a large initial letter. The overall appearance is that of an ancient, well-used document.
