Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a form of Church Slavonic. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines. The script is dense and characteristic of the 17th or 18th century. There are several dark ink blotches or holes in the paper, notably one near the top left and another near the middle right. The text appears to be a liturgical or administrative document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a signature or a name, oriented vertically.

Faint, illegible handwriting on a narrow strip of aged paper, possibly a page from a book or manuscript. The text is too light to transcribe accurately.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper with horizontal fold lines.]
