Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is arranged in approximately 15 lines. The script is dense and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language or dialect. The text appears to be a formal or legal document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction, given the use of words like "dofey no' borofan" and "Hud Arum sba dofey no' borofan".

Handwritten text in Cyrillic script, likely a manuscript or letter, written in a cursive style. The text is arranged in three lines across the middle of the page.
